- 1.3 No terms and conditions other than these GPC, the provisions of the Order and any and all documents incorporated therein by reference shall be binding upon the Buyer unless expressly accepted in writing by the Buyer. Neither acceptance of any Goods by the Buyer (including any signature by any representative of the Buyer on any quotation or delivery confirmation) nor payment therefore shall constitute an acceptance by the Buyer of any such terms and conditions.
- 1.4 No Order, variation or amendment thereof, addition or a complement thereto shall be binding on the Buyer other than an Order or change Order issued by the Buyer and duly signed by an authorised representative of the Buyer.
- 1.5 If and when applicable, the Seller warrants it is acting in accordance with the Law No. 17/001 of 8 February 2017, fixing the rules applicable to subcontracting in private sector in the DRC, and its related decrees ("Subcontracting Law"), and the Seller hereby irrevocably agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer, for any penalty imposed on the Buyer due to a non-compliance finding by the Subcontracting Regulatory Authority ("ARSP") in relation to the Seller's Subcontracting Law compliance. The Seller agrees that if any such penalty is imposed on the Buyer, the Buyer may set-off any such amount from any payments due to the Seller, or alternatively, request the Seller to reimburse the Buyer with such amount.
- 1.6 If individual terms of these GPC cannot be applied for any reason whatsoever in respect of a particular Order, such terms shall be severed from the remaining terms of these GPC, which remaining terms and conditions will remain unaffected and binding on the Buyer and Seller.
- 1.7 Special provisions of an Order and specific terms agreed in writing by the Buyer and the Seller, which may be in contradiction with these GPC, shall prevail over the corresponding GPC provisions.
- ### 2. PRICES - QUOTATION - CONDITIONS OF PAYMENT - INVOICING
- 2.1 Any offer/s, proposals and/or price quotation/s delivered by the Seller to the Buyer shall be subject to the terms and conditions set out on the initial quotation received by the Seller.

- 2.4 After each Delivery of Goods pursuant to an Order, the Seller shall send duplicate invoices in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations and the Buyer's requirements, which invoices shall reflect the Buyer's Order number, date, the Seller's references, the relevant stage of contractual performance at which a progress payment may be invoiced in accordance with the Order, and shall specify the amount of any progress payment or balance requested. No invoice shall relate to more than one Order.
- 2.5 The Buyer shall pay the amount of duly issued and undisputed invoices within 60 (sixty) days, after date of receipt of the statement. For the avoidance of doubt, payment shall only be made in respect of the Goods that have in fact been delivered to the Buyer prior to the date of receipt of the statement. Notwithstanding anything else contained in these GPC, the Buyer is not required to pay the amount of any invoice if the Seller fails to meet the requirements of the Order. In this case, the Seller shall have no claim for interest (even on a portion of the price), penalties or any other compensation whatsoever in relation to such non-payment.
- 2.6 The absence of an express rejection of an invoice shall not constitute acceptance thereof or of the Goods by the Buyer and payment of an invoice shall not constitute acceptance by the Buyer of any Goods ordered or Delivered. Any acceptance of Goods by the Buyer shall be without prejudice to the Buyer's rights in terms of the Warranties or any of its other rights or remedies in terms of these GPC or in law.

The Seller shall provide the Buyer and its representatives or agents free access to the Seller's workshop/s at all reasonable times during the Seller's normal working hours. Any verification or inspection by the Buyer pursuant to this clause shall in no way relieve the Seller from its obligations in terms of the Order or these GPC, or limit such obligations in any way.
- 4.1.3 The Goods shall be packaged in full accordance with the "Packing and Marking Specification" contemplated in or accompanying the relevant Order so that they will not be damaged during transportation or handling. - 6.5 All Goods rejected, due to a fault and inherent defect caused by the Seller must be collected by the Seller or will be returned to the Seller, at the Seller's risk and expense, and will be stored at the Seller's risk in the Buyer's warehouses until such time as they are collected by the Seller or its agent or sub-contractor. Should the Seller fail to collect the Goods within 15 (fifteen) days following notification of rejection, the Seller shall be liable to pay warehouse storage charges for the Goods from that date until the date on which the Goods are collected. Notwithstanding the above, should the Seller fail to collect the Goods within 30 (thirty) days following notification of rejection, the Buyer shall be entitled to have the rejected Goods delivered to the Seller's address appearing on the Order at the Seller's risk and expense.

The Seller's liability will not be affected by the Buyer's choice of remedy or the period taken by the Buyer to elect an appropriate remedy.
- 6.9 No inspection, approval or acceptance of Delivery of Goods shall relieve the Seller from responsibility for defects or other failures to meet the requirements of the Order or comply with these GPC.
- 6.10 The Seller shall supply the Goods and all spare parts, accessories or components thereof for repair, maintenance or extensions of the Goods ("Parts"), through the whole period of the Order and thereafter for a period of 2 (two) years after the relevant Goods have been put into service and warrants that the production and/or distribution of the Goods and the Parts will not be discontinued. If the Seller intends to stop production and/or distribution of all or part of the Goods or the Parts after the Delivery date of the Order, the Seller shall inform the Buyer of this fact at least 1 (one) year in advance, so that the Buyer still has an opportunity to place additional orders and obtain sufficient Parts.

- 7.2 In the event that the Goods become the subject of any actions or claims of infringement of Intellectual Property Rights, the Seller shall either, in the shortest possible period, obtain the right for the Buyer to use the Goods, or modify or replace the Goods so that the infringement ends. Modification or replacement of the Goods shall never result in a decrease or reduction of the functionality or fitness of the Goods for the particular purpose for which the Goods were ordered by the Buyer. If the Seller fails to carry out its obligations as set out herein, the Buyer, with 5 (five) business days advance notice to the Seller, shall be entitled to take such actions as it deems necessary and to recover the total cost of the Goods from the Seller.
- 7.3 Patentable inventions and protectable creations as well as their results, insofar as they arise from the Order, shall belong to the Buyer unless the Seller establishes that they arise from the Seller's sole inventive capacity, and were developed independently of the Order.

- 9.3 The price of any Goods Delivered to the Buyer prior to the Force Majeure Event occurring shall only be due and payable by the Buyer to the Seller if those Goods may be fully used by the Buyer notwithstanding the subsequent failure to Deliver the rest of the Goods relating to that Order as a result of the Force Majeure Event. If the Buyer elects to terminate the remaining obligations of the Buyer under that Order, any excess amount paid as an advance by the Buyer shall be refunded by the Seller to the Buyer within 7 (seven) days of such termination.
- 9.4 Equipment breakdowns, shortage of materials, or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the Buyer preventing the use of the Goods or reducing the needs of the Buyer or the Seller with respect to the Goods shall entitle the Buyer, at its option, to suspend or postpone Delivery of the ordered Goods or to terminate the Order, in whole or in part, without further obligation or liability.
10. TERMINATION
- 10.1 The Buyer shall always be entitled, even though the Seller is not in breach of any obligation, to suspend the Order for a period determined by the Buyer, or to terminate the same, in whole or in part, by giving 10 (ten) days' prior written notice to the Seller.

- 10.2.3 where the suspension arises as a result of any action or omission by the Seller, the Seller will not be entitled to claim any costs incurred in relation thereto.
- 10.3 If the period for which the Buyer suspends any Order in terms of clause 10.1 exceeds 90 (ninety) days, the Seller may notify the Buyer that unless the suspension is lifted within a further 30 (thirty) days from the date of the notice, the Seller shall be entitled to terminate the Order, on notice to the Buyer.
- 10.4 In no event shall the Seller be entitled to indemnification by the Buyer for any incidental or consequential damages, including loss of profits, arising from such a suspension or termination.
- 10.5 If the Seller breaches any term or condition of an Order, the Buyer shall be entitled, by written notice to the Seller and without prejudice to any other remedy that may be available to it in terms of these GPC, in law or otherwise, to terminate the Order, in whole or in part, without any further liability or obligation, and to recover from the Seller all moneys paid by the Buyer in respect thereof, from any additional costs incurred in procuring replacement Goods from an alternative supplier and indemnification for losses or damages incurred by the Buyer as the result of the Seller's breach or failure to comply. If, in the sole discretion of the Buyer, the Seller has failed to make sufficient progress in producing or assembling the Goods so as to endanger the timely Delivery of the Goods in terms of the Order, the Buyer may terminate the Order, in whole or in part, without prejudice to any other remedy that may be available to it in terms of these GPC, in law or otherwise, and the foregoing provisions will apply.
- 10.6 Without detracting from the Buyer's discretion in clause 10.5, the Buyer shall be entitled to terminate the Order with immediate effect without any further obligation or liability if the Buyer has good reason to believe that the Seller will be unable to normally execute its obligations in full as and when they fall due and/or in the event that the Seller is liquidated, wound-up, deregistered, sequestered or otherwise commits an act of insolvency as contemplated in insolvency laws. The Seller shall immediately notify the Buyer of any insolvency proceeding (provisional or final) that may be threatened or pending against the Seller.

The Buyer reserves the right to reject any of Seller's sub-contractors that do not comply with these GPC or the Buyer's rules and policies. 13.2.3 for the avoidance of doubt, the Seller shall remain solely responsible for negotiating and implementing the contractual arrangements with the nominated service provider in a way where such contractual arrangements shall conform with all of the Buyer's instructions as contemplated above;

13.2.4 the Seller agrees that if clause 13.2 is not adhered to, the Company is entitled to withhold all and any payment until the Seller has complied with the above provisions.
